Mya Green focuses her practice on commercial litigation, government investigations, and antitrust matters.

Mya assists clients in both state and federal courts in commercial and business litigation, government investigations, and antitrust matters.

Her experience also includes representing clients in personal injury cases, premises liability cases, and wrongful death settlements.

Mya's deep trial and trial prep experience informs her litigation strategy, even if a case does not ultimately go to trial. She has conducted more than 150 depositions and routinely participates in mediations and handles written discovery.
