Nashville | 615.726.5611 | jcjohnson@bakerdonelson.com

Jordyne Johnson represents owners, prime contractors, subcontractors, and suppliers in construction litigation and arbitration matters.

Jordyne Johnson is an associate in Baker Donelson's Nashville office and assists clients with construction litigation and arbitration matters, including complex commercial construction disputes involving breach of contract, wrongful termination, construction defect, delay, differing site conditions, extension of time/additional work, and lien and bond claims. She represents owners, prime contractors, subcontractors, and suppliers on commercial construction projects throughout Tennessee.

Jordyne regularly advises her clients on litigation strategy and the negotiation and settlement of disputes. In addition to her background as a litigator, Jordyne has successfully resolved claims through arbitration.
