Baker Donelson Attorneys Named "IP Stars" in Managing Intellectual Property's 2013 IP Handbook

June 18, 2013

(Nashville, TN / June 18, 2013) – Baker Donelson is pleased to announce that four of its attorneys have been named "IP Stars" in the 2013 edition of Managing Intellectual Property's IP Handbook, an annual publication featuring the leading intellectual property agencies and law firms worldwide.

This is the inaugural listing of "IP Stars" to be included in the IP Handbook. Selections for this listing are based on extensive research conducted by a team compiling responses from thousands of peers and in-house counsel.

The Baker Donelson attorneys listed as "IP Stars" in the 2013 edition of the IP Handbook are:

- Bruce C. Doeg
- David A. Larsen
- Bradley E. Trammell

The IP Handbook also listed Baker Donelson as "highly recommended" in the state of Tennessee for its intellectual property work, which includes a significant amount of patent and trademark prosecution and transactional services in addition to litigation.

The Intellectual Property Group at Baker Donelson undertakes responsibility for the protection of inventions and other forms of intellectual property for clients ranging from start-ups to Fortune 500 companies. They obtain, defend and enforce patents, trademarks and copyrights in the United States and throughout the world. The Firm has developed relationships with intellectual property lawyers in many major foreign countries, and has facilitated applications, patents and registrations of trademarks in over 80 foreign jurisdictions.
