

KATIE MARREN

is a fourth-year undergraduate student at Vanderbilt University in Nashville. She anticipates graduating in May 2013, with a Bachelor of Science degree with a double major in Human and Organizational Development concentrating in Leadership and Organizational Effectiveness, and in Public Policy Studies concentrating in International Economic Policy. Ms. Marren also holds leadership positions in Pi Beta Phi sorority and on the Sailing Team at Vanderbilt.

At Baker Donelson, Ms. Marren is working as a legal intern for the Fall Semester 2012. Her experience includes work with the Labor and Employment and Real Estate practice groups, where she has conducted legal research, drafted legal memoranda, formulated arguments, supported diversity initiatives, and completed extensive work in the Microsoft Office suite. Ms. Marren is pursuing post-graduate employment in a variety of opportunities and is looking forward to joining the workforce upon graduation.

BAKER, DONELSON, BEARMAN, CALDWELL & BERKOWITZ, PC
BAKER DONELSON CENTER
SUITE 800
211 COMMERCE STREET
NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE 37201

EXPAND YOUR EXPECTATIONSSM

