

PRESS RELEASE

Baker Donelson Represents S&S Health in Growth Investment from Lovell Minnick Partners

October 16, 2023

The national law firm of Baker Donelson advised S&S Health (S&S), a leading provider of administration and technology solutions for health plans for small and mid-sized businesses, in connection with a majority growth investment from Lovell Minnick Partners LLC (LMP), a private equity firm focused on investments in financial services, business services, and financial technology companies.

This strategic partnership will enable S&S to advance organic growth initiatives, enhance operational efficiency, and accelerate its mission to improve health care outcomes nationwide.

The Baker Donelson team was led by Corporate/M&A shareholders Joseph R. Delgado Jr. and Ryan M. Richards and Corporate/M&A associates John D. McCallister, Jackson Cates, Gabby Haddad, and Stefan R. Kostas.

The team also included Hunter Threet (Corporate/M&A), Steven K. Wood (Tax), Layna Cook Rush (Insurance Regulatory), Claude P. Czaja (Real Estate), Anthony C. Cianciotti (Finance), David Gevertz (Employment), Katherine I. Funk (Antitrust), Tyler Saenz (Corporate/M&A), Sarah Sexton (Corporate/M&A), Kareim Oliphant (Corporate/M&A), Jack Ritossa (Corporate/M&A), Carl Davis II (IP), J. Scott Newton (Litigation), and William E. Robinson (Employee Benefits).

S&S Health was founded in 1994 with a focus on comprehensive health care services and coverage. S&S Health's proprietary claims adjudication platform enables the company to support any plan design, level of complexity, and account structure to offer cost-effective, tailored solutions for employers. In addition to benefit plan administration, S&S provides employers with provider network access and a marketplace of solutions for wellness and cost-containment strategies.
