

Keith Fagerquist*

Public Policy Advisor

Washington, D.C. | 205.508.3405 | kfagerquist@bakerdonelson.com

Keith Fagerquist serves as a policy advisor for the Government Relations and Public Policy Group and focuses his work on health care and defense policy issues.

As a member of the Government Relations and Public Policy Group, Mr. Fagerquist works on health care and defense policy issues for clients in both the public and private sectors.

Prior to joining Baker Donelson, Mr. Fagerquist worked various projects as a contractor throughout the Department of Defense, advising on health policies within Health Affairs and the respective services.

Mr. Fagerquist holds a master's degree in health policy from George Mason University with emphasis on decision making in policy advocacy, development, implementation, and analysis.

Publications

- "Funding Opportunity for Community Noise Mitigation near Military Bases (Deadline: February 1, 2024) " (October 2023)
- "2022 Distance Learning and Telemedicine Grant Open for Hospitals and Education Systems" (December 2022)
- "Distance Learning and Telemedicine Grant Open for Hospitals and Education Systems" (April 2021)
- "USDA Opens Second Application Window for Distance Learning and Telemedicine Grant Program" (April 9, 2020)
- "Coronavirus: Legislative Recap" (March 19, 2020)
- "Supplemental Coronavirus Legislation H.R. 6201 - Families First Coronavirus Response Act" (March 17, 2020)
- "Coronavirus: Key Aspects of $8.3 Billion Spending Package" (March 11, 2020)
- "USDA Grants Available to Purchase Equipment for Telemedicine and Distance Learning Programs " (February 2020)

Education

- George Mason University, M.S., 2018
- George Mason University, B.S., 2015

 Baker Donelson professional not admitted to the practice of law.*