Kent A. Lambert has an active civil trial and appellate practice defending national and international companies in high-stakes, bet-the-company litigation.

Mr. Lambert is chair of the Logistics, Energy, and Manufacturing Group and office managing shareholder for the Mandeville office. Before assuming these roles, he led Baker Donelson's Business Litigation Group, one of the Firm's largest groups, with more than 100 attorneys across 22 offices in 11 states and Washington, D.C.

For more than three decades, Mr. Lambert has helmed large and complex lawsuits, including bet-the-company litigation matters, pursuing and defending his clients in matters involving fraud and other intentional and unintentional business torts; unfair trade practice matters; breach of fiduciary duty and professional liability claims; commercial and contract actions; disputes over intellectual property; franchise matters; property and leasehold disputes; and qui tam and civil RICO actions. His clients operate in a variety of industries, including chemical and petrochemical concerns, aggregates, transportation, manufacturing, telecommunications, health care, hospitality, construction, technology, lending and financial services, insurance, and real estate.

Mr. Lambert has litigated and successfully resolved hundreds of matters around the country, and when necessary, has successfully tried numerous cases – both bench and jury trials – in jurisdictions from New Mexico to Virginia. He has also handled arbitration matters, state and federal appeals (including matters that reached the United States Supreme Court), and countless mediations and other pre-suit dispute resolution proceedings.

Mr. Lambert's philosophy is to deliver comprehensive and goal-oriented representation predicated upon delivering great communication, a talented and cohesive team, and relentless advocacy.

Representative Matters

- Ongoing representation, including multiple trials, of one of the nation's largest aggregates companies in protracted litigation encompassing multiple federal court class actions and individual lawsuits in both state and federal court arising from catastrophic subsidence events associated with the at-depth failure of a plugged and abandoned brine mining cavern reaching nearly a mile underground.
- Defense of a major legacy telecommunications company against state qui tam claims under the New Mexico Fraud Against Taxpayers Act in a multi-week state court jury trial in Sante Fe, resulting in a zero-liability verdict.
- Successful defense of a construction management joint venture against claims arising from asbestos contamination of an elementary school during major building renovations in a multi-week jury trial held in Orleans Parish, Louisiana.
- Defense of a major utility company against high-exposure claims brought by severely burned survivor of residential gas explosion, culminating in a multi-week jury trial in Louisiana state court.

- Successfully obtained dismissal of a multimillion-dollar case on behalf of an insurance company in an international dispute arising from damages sustained to a major submarine power cable during underwater work near Saudi Arabia related to the construction of offshore pipelines.
- Successfully defended a national bank and residential mortgage lender against allegations of racketeering and fraud-based RICO claims involving acts of mail and wire fraud alleged to have occurred over a long period of time.
- Successfully represented an international construction, fabrication, and engineering concern in litigation before the Eastern District of Washington involving allegations of fraud, gross negligence and construction defects related to the construction of silicon and silicate refining facilities for a subsidiary of a major European solar power concern.
- Successfully defended an international disaster recovery and remediation company in an $85 million suit in the Middle District of Florida against civil claims asserted under the RICO Act, as well as for fraud, civil conspiracy, tortious interference and related business torts involving alleged conspiratorial misconduct with the plaintiffs' insurers and adjusters, third-party construction managers and others related to property damage claims for nine beach front hotels stemming from hurricanes Charlie, Francis and Jeanne.
- Successfully defended a leading international bond insurer in a suit before the Western District of Louisiana against claims for fraud, conspiracy to defraud, unfair business practices, negligent misrepresentation and other intentional and non-intentional business torts seeking more than $1.1 billion in damages based on allegations that the insurer, individually and in concert with various investors and other credit insurers, sought to force the plaintiff hospital system into a default on a series of conduit financing bonds used to develop integrated and stand-alone facilities within the plaintiff's system.
- Successfully defended a national bond insurer before the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana and the U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals against claims brought by a Louisiana hospital over a $350 million bond issuance alleging bad faith breach of contract, negligent misrepresentation, abuse of right, and related business torts, ultimately prevailing on appeal pursuant to a unanimous three-judge decision affirming the trial court's dismissal of the entirety of the plaintiff hospital's suit with prejudice.
- Successfully represented a leading financial institution against individual and class-wide claims brought on behalf of mortgagors in the aftermath of hurricanes Katrina and Rita in both Louisiana state and federal courts, obtaining involuntary dismissals in eight separate cases.
- Represented a state insurance company in litigation against the Louisiana Department of Insurance, successfully overcoming the department's attempt to place the company into an involuntary receivership.
- Obtained the dismissal of a Kentucky merger bank and its holding company from suit in Louisiana state court alleging negligence by the bank in accepting numerous fraudulent items over an extended period, which facilitated a massive embezzlement scheme.
- Recovered on a multimillion dollar claim on behalf of an interstate gas pipeline company after a critical offshore pipeline was damaged during dredging operations.
- Defended a leading regional bank in a putative class action brought on behalf of customers claiming their automobile loan accounts had been charged excessive amounts for force-placed collateral protection insurance secured by the lender through an alleged "captive" insurance provider.
- Defended a major telecommunications provider accused of sabotaging the plaintiff's proprietary invention in order to promote competing products, ultimately settling the claims after filing a series of potentially dispositive motions.
- Successfully resolved claims pursued over the better part of a decade by RTC/FDIC against various officers and directors for alleged breach of fiduciary duty and related misconduct surrounding the purported post-FIRREA insolvency of a recapitalized thrift that presented novel and complex issues regarding the ability of regulated institutions and their principals and investors to protect contributed real estate assets and operations through bankruptcy and other non-regulatory activities and proceedings.

- Obtained a favorable judgment after a bench trial in a multimillion-dollar check fraud suit in Louisiana federal court.
- Defended a leading U.S. professional salon products manufacturer in a hard-fought case against claims of wrongful termination alleging millions of dollars in damages by one of its regional product distributors; ultimately settled very favorably for the client.
- Represented a gas utility in a bench trial in Virginia federal court over the corrosion and failure of underground gas pipeline segments attributed to deficient cathodic protection.
- Defended a gas utility in a two-week jury trial in Louisiana state court against claims by an individual who survived a residential gas explosion with second and third degree burns over more than 80 percent of his body.
- Successfully protected a minority shareholder against a hostile squeeze out attempted by a majority interest holder in anticipation of pursuing an IPO.
- Significant experience litigating TROs and preliminary injunctions in unfair competition, trade secret and consumer lending disputes.
- Prevailed before the Louisiana Court of Appeal, First Circuit in an appeal from a confirmed default judgment with the result that the judgment, which included injunctive relief, declaratory relief, monetary damages, the disqualification of prior counsel, statutory penalties, and attorneys' fee awards, was vacated in its entirety because it was rendered without proper notice.
- Obtained a judgment from the Louisiana Court of Appeal, First Circuit on behalf of a bank, vacating a trial court's judgment as null in a residential foreclosure action, after a debtor obtained a default judgment against a bank in an ex parte proceeding, resulting in the bank filing for a new trial, asserting a lack of notice. The circuit court vacated the trial court's judgment because the debtor had failed to send required notice of the date of the entry of the judgment of default by certified mail at least seven days, exclusive of holidays, before confirmation of the judgment of default, as is required by law.
- Prevailed on behalf of multiple mortgage servicers in an action before the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana in a federal civil RICO Act suit brought on behalf of multiple Louisiana parish clerks, related to alleged improprieties involving the recordation and administration of mortgage loan assignments; court dismissed the entire action with prejudice.
- Prevailed on appeal before the Louisiana Court of Appeals, Fourth Circuit, which affirmed the decision of the Civil District Court for the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana dismissing a gross negligence suit against a mortgage servicer related to alleged lender misconduct in the administration of so-called Section 203(k) financing.
- Successfully represented an international magnetics manufacturer in a patent case before the Northern District of California related to the housing design for toroids used in printed circuit board applications.
- Resolved a long-running dispute with the Louisiana Department of Revenue on behalf of a financial services client with co-counsel of Sidley Austin LLP. The dispute involved millions of dollars in corporate and franchise tax assessments related to consumer loans made by affiliates of our client to Louisiana borrowers. We successfully resolved these suits through an offset against tax refund claims by certain of our client's affiliated entities sued by the Department.
- Obtained dismissal of a lawsuit against an ambulatory facilities operator brought by its joint venture partners in a multimillion-dollar Louisiana acute care facility.
