

Matt A. Woolf

Shareholder

New Orleans | 504.566.5262 | mwoolf@bakerdonelson.com

Matt Woolf is the chair of Baker Donelson's New Litigator Group and concentrates his practice on commercial disputes and insurance defense.

Mr. Woolf has considerable experience defending class and mass actions against the insurance industry, as well as administrating, managing and defending large volumes of individual claims and lawsuits over a broad geographic region.

His experience includes numerous lines of private and commercial property, life, and liability insurance, bad faith, coverage, regulatory and third-party defense. Mr. Woolf also represents clients in a wide variety of commercial litigation matters, with particular experience representing both plaintiffs and defendants in securities fraud litigation, complex corporate class and mass action litigation, and a variety of contractual, fiduciary and business tort litigation.

Representative Matters

- Extensive representation of national insurance companies in class, mass, and individual first-party property claims in the wake of Hurricanes Cindy, Katrina, Rita, Gustav and Ike.
- Obtained a $3.5 million summary judgment on behalf of seven plaintiffs in securities fraud litigation.
- Obtained the dismissal of a $2.9 million lawsuit arising out of the sale of securities.
- Successfully defended four lawsuits, an ICC arbitration, and two appeals to the U.S. Fourth Circuit in securing confirmation of an international arbitral award on behalf of an international petroleum company, which resulted in the dismissal of more than $100 million in claims, and ordered reimbursement to the client of over $730,000 in attorneys' fees and arbitration costs.
- Represented a state oil company in ICC arbitration and confirmation proceedings arising out of the sale of multiple shipments of gasoline where the claims asserted exceeded $150 million.
- Represented a state oil company in ICC arbitration and confirmation proceedings arising out of the sale of multiple shipments of crude oil and related antitrust litigation.
- Defended a Fortune 100 retailer from company owned life insurance class actions in state and federal court.

Professional Honors & Activities

- Listed in Louisiana Super Lawyers in Business Litigation (2014 – 2021)
- Listed as a Louisiana Rising Star by Louisiana Super Lawyers (2012, 2013)
- Listed in The Best Lawyers in America® in Commercial Litigation and Insurance Law (2013 – 2021); Insurance Litigation (2021)
- Recognized as a "Top Lawyer" by New Orleans Magazine in Insurance Law (2018, 2019)
- Member – Louisiana State Bar Association
- Member – New Orleans Bar Association
- Member – American Bar Association
 - Co-Chair of the Property Subcommittee, ABA Section of Litigation Insurance Coverage Litigation Committee
- Member – Federal Bar Association
- Tulane Law Review (1998 – 2000), Managing Editor (1999)

Publications

- "Considerations for Insurance Providers Handling Homeowners Claims from Winter Storm Uri," republished in New Orleans CityBusiness (February 2021)

Speaking Engagements

- Co-presenter – "What to Do When Hurricanes Affect Your Business and Property: Property Insurance and Business Interruption Coverage for Hurricanes," ABA CLE Webinar (October 2017)
- "What to Do in the Event of a Hurricane – Attending to Insurance Issues," ABA Section of Litigation Roundtable (December 2016)

Education

- Tulane University, J.D., 2000, cum laude
- Duke University, B.A., 1997

Admissions

- Louisiana, 2000
- U.S. District Courts for the Eastern, Middle and Western Districts of Louisiana
- U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals
- U.S. Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals