Shareholder

New Orleans | 504.566.5255 | lbrink@bakerdonelson.com

As a shareholder in the Logistics, Energy and Manufacturing Litigation Group and member of the Advocacy Department, Lauren Brink Adams advises and represents a number of national and international companies in a variety of complex matters.

Ms. Adams advises and represents a broad range of companies in high-exposure commercial litigation and oil and gas matters. Her practice focuses on complex litigation at the district court and appellate levels related to torts to property, including trespass, nuisance, premises liability, and abuse of right claims; negligence and unfair trade practices claims; contract, lease, and servitude disputes; and environmental contamination, subsidence, land loss, and general property damages. This includes legacy lawsuits, Coastal Zone Management Act (CZMA) lawsuits, Ground Water Act claims, and citizen suits.

Based on her successful representation of clients in bet-the-company litigation, Ms. Adams has been recognized in Rising Stars by Super Lawyers and listed in Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch® in America for Commercial Litigation (2021 – 2026), Environmental Law and Energy Law (2022 – 2026), and Litigation - Environmental (2026). Additionally, she was selected as a New Orleans CityBusiness 2025 Leadership in Law Honoree. Ms. Adams proudly serves as a member of the Louisiana State Law Institute Council, Young Leader's Division, and the Code of Civil Procedure Committee, which is dedicated to the revision, reform, and research of Louisiana law.

Before joining Baker Donelson, Ms. Adams served as a judicial extern to U.S. District Court Judge John W. deGravelles of the Middle District of Louisiana in Baton Rouge and as a legislative intern to State Representative Franklin J. Foil (District 70).

Representative Matters

- Providing ongoing defense of one of the nation's largest aggregates companies in complex state and federal court litigation in connection with a catastrophic subsidence event associated with brine-solution mining operations.
- Providing ongoing and prior successful defense of multiple oil and gas companies in "legacy lawsuits" seeking remediation of alleged surface and subsurface pollution, including alleged groundwater contamination, with alleged damages often exceeding several hundred million dollars.
- Providing ongoing defense of multiple oil and gas companies in Coastal Zone Management Act lawsuits asserted by various parishes and the City of New Orleans, as well as land loss litigation brought by public entities involving more than 30,000 acres of wildlife management area.
- Providing ongoing defense of a multinational telecommunications company in federal class action lawsuits involving lead-sheathed cables and claims of environmental damage.
- Represented a leading midstream pipeline company in pursuit of a $1.6 billion natural gas gathering project, including the prosecution of antitrust, unfair trade practices, and tort claims, resulting in favorable rulings and both parties' dismissal of claims with prejudice.
- Defended an oilfield waste management facility against claims of alleged surface and subsurface pollution and groundwater contamination, resulting in favorable settlement.
- Defended a leading global provider of disaster response services in high-profile federal court litigation following a Congressional investigation, resulting in a favorable settlement.
