

Lex Wells

Paralegal

Atlanta | 404.221.6521 | awells@bakerdonelson.com

Lex Wells, paralegal in Baker Donelson's Atlanta office, concentrates her practice in NCC portfolio management, business litigation, and corporate compliancy. She has over 28 years of experience as a paralegal and has been with Baker Donelson since July 2007, and with its predecessor firm since May 1995.

Professional Honors & Activities

- Co-Chair – Georgia Association of Paralegals Pro Bono
 - Awarded for Outstanding Pro Bono Services
 - Georgia Legal Services – Awarded MVP for pro bono efforts for Douglas County Senior Center in Georgia
 - Atlanta Fire Department post-9/11 outreach program estate planning assistance
 - Dekalb County State Court CourtWatch program
 - Fulton County Victims Assessment/Partnership Against Domestic Violence – obtained temporary restraining orders for victims of abuse
 - Genesis Shelter – assisted additional funding and 501(c)(3) application for womens' shelter
- Pro bono litigation to prevent the foreclosure of homeless shelter. (2009 – 2020)
- Atlanta Legal Aid intake assessment for clients diagnosed with cancer, HIV, or ALS (2011 – 2017)
- Winner – Baker Donelson Pro Bono Paralegal of the Year and Employee of the Year (2016)
- Winner – Baker Donelson Paralegal of the Year (2018)
- Appointed Special Advocate for children in foster care, Fulton County Juvenile Court (2019 – 2022)
- Fulton County D.A. CourtWatch for Atlanta Police Foundation (2022 – 2023)
- Winner – Baker Donelson Paralegal Pro Bono of the Year (2023)
- Appointed sole paralegal to Pro Bono Committee (2023)

Publications and Speaking Engagements

- Conducted seminars on litigation and entity formation for National Business Institute and paralegal education associations.
- Conducted professional development seminar on pro bono efforts.

Education

- National Center for Paralegal Training, 1995
- University of Bristol, United Kingdom, 1991