

Howard L. Sollins

Senior Counsel

Baltimore | 410.862.1101 | hsollins@bakerdonelson.com

Howard L. Sollins is an experienced health care regulatory attorney and leader of the Firm's Seniors Housing and Long Term Care regulatory team.

Mr. Sollins' experience, which stretches over four decades, includes matters involving federal and state regulations; Medicare, Medicaid, and other reimbursement; structuring business transactions and contracts; licensing, survey and certification; certificate of need; fraud and abuse; corporate compliance; and e-health and technology.

Prior to entering private practice, Mr. Sollins served as an assistant attorney general for the Maryland Department of Health.

Mr. Sollins represents health care providers, vendors, and suppliers. His clients include hospitals and health systems; long term care providers, including skilled nursing facilities, hospices, assisted living facilities, and continuing care retirement communities; ambulance suppliers; physicians and other health care practitioners; pharmacies; and others. He has helped health systems navigate licensing and certification issues; obtain certificate of need approvals for major projects; structure business transactions, including the change of ownership process; work with banks and other lenders on health care financing transactions; and respond to False Claims Act investigations, including the negotiation of corporate integrity agreements. Mr. Sollins has represented a number of national and local health care associations. He has participated on their behalf in multiple federal negotiated rulemaking processes.

Mr. Sollins serves the community by actively participating with not-for-profit organizations in a leadership capacity, including service as a board member for The Frank and Miriam Loveman Foundation, funding programs for families in Baltimore City. He is a past president of Comprehensive Housing Assistance, Inc., a not-for-profit organization operating 1,600 affordable housing units and providing an array of community services to seniors and others. He is a past president of the Board of Advisors for the University of Maryland Baltimore School of Social Work and is the recipient of the Dean's Medal for his service.

Mr. Sollins has been recognized by The Best Lawyers in America®, Chambers USA, Legal 500, Super Lawyers, and AV® Preeminent™ by Martindale-Hubbell. Additionally, he has the honor of being on the Health Law and Policy Alumni Advisory Council for American University Washington College of Law.
