

Scott Robertson

Associate

Atlanta | 404.443.6704 | srobertson@bakerdonelson.com

Scott Robertson, an associate in the Atlanta office, concentrates his practice in litigation and health care.

Scott Robertson is an associate in Baker Donelson's Atlanta office and a member of the Advocacy Department. Scott concentrates his practice in litigation and health care.

While in law school, Scott served as a student attorney with the Georgia State University HeLP Legal Services Clinic where he was responsible for assisting clients with various cases involving childhood disabilities, housing conditions, education, and access to health care.

Prior to law school, Scott was a information systems analyst for a health care consulting firm. He worked directly with physicians, nurses, and IT professionals to build, implement, support, and enhance the Electronic Health Record (EHR) onsite at multiple hospitals nationwide. Scott also advised on Emergency Department patient throughput and trained health care practitioners on computer assisted patient medication systems. He is familiar with Soarian Clinicals, Epic, and Pyxis information systems.

Publications

- "CMS Approves Georgia's Section 1135 Waiver Request for Medicaid and PeachCare for Kids " (April 7, 2020)
- "Coronavirus: What the Georgia Governor's Shelter-in-Place Order Means for Health Care Providers" (March 26, 2020)
- "Coronavirus: Identifying Essential Activities and Essential Businesses under Atlanta's Stay at Home Order" (March 24, 2020)
- "Coronavirus: Executive Order Relaxes Regulatory Requirements on Health Care Facilities, Physicians, and Pharmacists in Georgia" (March 23, 2020)
- "Coronavirus: Georgia Governor Declares Public Health Emergency to Combat COVID-19" (March 20, 2020)
- "Coronavirus: Temporary Child Care Solutions Could be Subject to Extensive State Regulations" (March 18, 2020)
- "Health Info Authorization Ruling Is A Mixed Bag For Providers," Law360 (February 2020)
- "District Court Ruling Impacts HIPAA Access Request Permissible Charges" (February 2020)
- "FDA Issues Cybersecurity Alert to Health Care Providers and Device Manufacturers " (October 2019)

Education

- Georgia State University College of Law, J.D., 2019 magna cum laude
 - Order of the Coif
 - Member – Law Review
- University of Central Florida, M.S. in biotechnology
 - Intern – Sanford Burnham Medical Research Institute
- University of Charleston, B.S., magna cum laude

Admissions

- Georgia, 2019