

Andrew Roach*

Associate

Atlanta | 404.443.6724 | aroach@bakerdonelson.com

Andrew Roach concentrates his practice in litigation with a focus on health care and employment law.

Andrew Roach is an associate in Baker Donelson's Atlanta office and a member of the Advocacy Department.

Andrew concentrates his practice in litigation with a focus on health care and employment law. He served as a legal extern in two non-profit hospitals, including St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, where he researched health and employment law issues, reviewed contracts, and revised hospital policies to meet federal and state requirements.

Andrew was involved in several law organizations throughout his academic career, including serving as Bar Governor in the Student Bar Association. Andrew is a veteran of the U.S. Army. During his service, he was deployed to Afghanistan.

Representative Matters

- Won a motion to dismiss on behalf of a large insurance syndicate in a federal class action lawsuit brought by food and beverage vendors. The vendors alleged the company wrongfully denied coverage for losses incurred during government-mandated business closures caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, but the court dismissed the class action claims with prejudice.

Professional Honors & Activities

- Legal Extern – St. Jude Children's Research Hospital (2018)
- Legal Extern – Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare (2017)

Publications

- "COVID Vaccines for LTC Employees: To Mandate or Not?," McKnight's Long-Term Care News (May 2021)
- "COVID Vaccines for Long Term Care Employees: To Mandate or Not to Mandate?" (April 2021)

Education

- Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law, J.D., 2019, magna cum laude
- Millsaps College, B.A., 2012, magna cum laude

Admissions

- Tennessee, 2019
- Georgia, Pending

* Baker Donelson professional admitted to the practice of law in Tennessee, Georgia bar application pending.