

Kseniya "Nicole" Kuprovskaya

Associate

Atlanta | 404.223.2216 | nkuprovskaya@bakerdonelson.com

Nicole Kuprovskaya practices in the areas of commercial litigation and government contracts.

Nicole Kuprovskaya's practice is devoted to civil business litigation involving commercial and government contract disputes, negligence, fraud or other wrongful acts, intellectual property, professional liability, and employment issues. She helps clients navigate various matters that businesses commonly encounter, including business litigation, regulatory compliance, employment issues and contract negotiation.

Nicole represents clients in state and federal courts across a variety of industries, including finance, professional services, software, construction, transportation, hospitality and retail. She also has significant experience representing federal and state government contractors in GAO bid protests and SBA size determination appeals as well as providing guidance on employment matters and evolving government contracts regulations and policies.

Nicole is a native speaker of Russian and Ukrainian.

Professional Honors & Activities

- Judicial Extern – The Honorable Richard W. Story, U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia (2020)
- Extern – Office of Chief Counsel at the Internal Revenue Service (2019)
- Volunteer – Atlanta Legal Aid Society (2020)
- Member – Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, International
- Member – American Bar Association

Publications

- Co-author – "Assignability of Commercial Contracts (GA)," by Jennifer G. Cooper and Kseniya "Nicole" Kuprovskaya, Thompson Reuters Practical Law (2021)

Education

- Emory University School of Law, J.D., 2020, cum laude
 - Managing Editor, Emory Law Journal (2019 – 2020)
 - Dean's List (2018 – 2020)
- Davidson College, B.A., 2015

Admissions

- Georgia, 2020
- Georgia Court of Appeals, 2021
- U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, 2021
- U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Georgia, 2021