Meredith C. Doll helps clients with business immigration matters, including strategy planning, worksite compliance and enforcement, and immigrant and nonimmigrant petitions.

Meredith C. Doll advises clients on all facets of business immigration, from hiring foreign-born employees to I-9 compliance. She has more than a decade of experience in the preparation and submission of immigration applications to government agencies. Her clients include pharma, biotech, and scientific companies; academic and governmental research laboratories; multinational engineering, manufacturing, transportation and distribution firms in industries ranging from agriculture to semiconductors; higher education and health care systems including universities, faculty practice groups, residency programs, foreign students, and exchange visitors; and individuals who are extraordinary in their field.

As a dedicated employment-based immigration attorney, Meredith understands the interplay between U.S. immigration laws and the operational needs of client organizations, and strives to anticipate challenges, communicate proactively, and put strategies in place to prevent problems before they start. Client services include:

- Employment-based Immigration Sponsorship: Advises companies on recruitment, hiring, retention and/or termination of foreign-born workers in the U.S., from the C-suite to the front line. Provides proactive policy development, implementation, and training services to clients, to engender a culture of compliance, drive efficiencies and reduce costs of immigration sponsorship to organizations.
- Mergers & Acquisitions: Provides immigration-related due diligence for mergers & acquisitions and advises buyers on management of liability and workforce risks during post-close transitions.
- Policies and Training: Assists companies in developing nondiscriminatory recruitment and hiring policies; compliant workforce verification processes (Form I-9 and E-Verify); and immigration-sensitive restrictive covenants for employment agreements.
- Global Mobility: Advises HR and global mobility teams on complex global employee travel and relocation issues; liaises with U.S. consulates abroad in special situations; and provides up-to-date guidance and coordination with local counsel for outgoing transfers.
- International Trade: Helps employers identify and navigate export licensing obligations under Export Administration Regulations (EAR) and International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) when recruiting for sensitive positions or hiring "foreign persons"; develops nondiscriminatory recruitment and hiring policies for employers subject to export regulations.
- Government Investigations: Defends companies in all stages of civil and criminal government investigations involving foreign-born employees and/or company compliance with immigration-related regulations, such as U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) I-9 audits, independent and complaint-based Immigrant and Employee Rights Section (IER) investigations, and Fraud Detection and National Security (FDNS) site visits.
- Litigation and Appeals: Advises companies and individual clients on post-decision strategies, including federal court litigation (Administrative Procedure Act (APA) challenges, mandamus actions, etc.); represents companies in agency litigation against U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS), U.S. Department of Labor (DOL), and U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) and administrative appeals before Administrative Appeals Office (AAO), Board of Alien Labor Certification Appeals (BALCA), and Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR).

Representative Matters

- Successfully resolved an ICE I-9 audit for an Illinois manufacturer where approximately one-third of floor workers were found to be potentially unauthorized to work in the U.S., resulting in no fine, no admission of civil or criminal liability and an extended period of time for workforce transition.
- Negotiated withdrawal of a $100,000 fine proposed by ICE against an Arizona event planning company, resulting in no fine and no admission of liability.
- Provided immigration due diligence and I-9 review for M&A transactions in the health care services, medical device manufacturing, and construction industries, as well as for private equity portfolio acquisitions.
- Successfully established Blanket L and E-2 Visa Registration programs for companies in the financial services, pharma and biotech, technology services, and global manufacturing and distribution sectors.
- Evaluated and advised employers across sectors on recruitment and hiring practices for compliance with the nondiscrimination provisions of the Immigration & Nationality Act, including citizenship status and national origin discrimination; employee verification and document abuse; and export control-compliant policy development.
- Secured temporary and permanent U.S. work authorization for c-suite executives of Fortune 100 companies and global leaders in the biotech and pharma, technology services, and manufacturing and distribution sectors.
