Vice President, DB3

Washington, D.C. | 202.326.5028 | Charlie@db-3.co

Charlie Panfil serves as a vice president of DB3, a public policy affiliate of Baker Donelson.

Charlie works with corporate and nonprofit clients on critical minerals, public health, cybersecurity, and cannabis matters. He also leads research projects, provides strategic social media advice, and tracks upcoming elections.

In 2017, Charlie founded one of the first Gen Z political action committees called Friends of Intelligent Democracy which registered young people to vote and helped elect Democrats across the country that support Gen Z policies. Charlie is also a member of Q Street, the professional association of LGBTQ lobbyists and public policy advocates, the National Institute for Lobbying and Ethics (NILE), and the Advocacy Association.
