Ken Burgess is a health care attorney with more than 35 years of experience advising clients on a wide range of regulatory, litigation, compliance, and operations issues.

Ken advises providers on legal issues arising in hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, assisted living communities, hospice, home health, and other spheres of health care.

Ken also represents ancillary providers, including pharmacy, durable medical equipment (DME), and therapy. He advises clients on Certificate of Need (CON), Medicare/Medicaid enrollment and licensure issues, appeals of quality-of-care issues, and transactional matters. Ken is a frequent national lecturer and author of industry manuals, national trade journal magazine articles, and similar training.

Ken previously served as the Senior Director of Legal Services and Facility Operations of the American Health Care Association (AHCA), as the General Counsel of the North Carolina Health Care Facilities Association (NCHCFA), and as the General Counsel of the Assisted Living Federation of America (ALFA), the national assisted living trade association in Washington, D.C.

Representative Matters

- Advised skilled nursing facilities, assisted living communities, and related long term care vendors on licensure, certification, survey, fraud and abuse, operations, risk management, certificate of need and business issues.
- Served as senior counsel to the national long term care trade association in Washington, D.C., where he was responsible for administering the association's legal assistance fund litigation, and overseeing all regulatory, facility operations, and clinical staff of the association.
- Served as regulatory and policy counsel for numerous sales and acquisitions of skilled nursing facilities and assisted living communities in multiple states.
- Represented national assisted living and skilled nursing facility provider in high profile licensure revocation action of multiple facilities in the state of Washington resulting in a favorable settlement and avoidance of involuntary de-licensure and permanent exclusion of the provider from the state.
- Negotiated a national exclusion from music licensing fee requirements for assisted living communities across the U.S.
- Served as the long term care industry representative on the first Negotiated Rulemaking Committee convened by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) to create safe harbors from the criminal provisions of the federal Anti-Kickback Statute.
- Negotiated the first global settlement of multiple facility licensure and certification survey citations in California with the state Department of Health Services and the California Attorney General.
- Assisted California provider in defending one of the earliest quality of care fraud actions, including negotiating with the federal Office of the Inspector General (OIG) to develop the provider's corporate compliance agreement and related settlement documents.
- Developed comprehensive advance directive policy for North Carolina long term care providers after enactment of the Patient Self-Determination Act.
- Represented state and national trade associations, and individual providers, on various issues impacting long term care providers, including negotiations with and representation before OSHA, the federal OIG, the HHS Center for Medicaid and Medicare Services, and state licensure and survey agencies.

- Worked with state trade association, providers, and national accrediting organizations to develop assisted living accreditation standards.
