Jordan Savitz is an accomplished business attorney with a proven track record of success advising businesses of all sizes, including emerging companies, family-owned businesses, and publicly traded companies throughout Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia. He regularly advises on general corporate governance, disputes among business owners, succession planning, and mergers and acquisitions.

Mr. Savitz serves as outside general counsel, delivering strategic advice and negotiating transaction documents, including Master Service Agreements, Operating/Stockholder Agreements, License Agreements, and more. His practice focuses on buy-side and sell-side acquisitions, with a particular emphasis on sell-side transactions to private equity-backed buyers.

Mr. Savitz is a trusted advisor skilled at navigating complex and sensitive disputes between business partners or between buyers and sellers. He ensures that clients are educated on the costs and benefits of their decisions and prepares them for potential outcomes. Recognized for his responsiveness and clear communication with clients, Mr. Savitz provides effective counsel during their most challenging times.

Recognized for his extensive knowledge of business law in Maryland, Mr. Savitz currently serves as chair of the Business Law Section of the Montgomery County Bar Association and vice chair of the Unincorporated Associations (LLC) Committee of the Business Law Section of the Maryland State Bar Association. He has been listed to Rising Stars by Super Lawyers since 2019, Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch® in America since 2021, and as a "Top Attorney" by Bethesda Magazine (formerly MoCo360) since 2019.
