

Callon A. Green

Associate

Charlotte | 980.256.6305 | cgreen@bakerdonelson.com

Callon Green focuses her practice on various litigation matters.

Ms. Green is an associate in the Firm's Charlotte office and a member of the Advocacy Department. She assists clients throughout the litigation process.

Prior to joining Baker Donelson as an associate, Ms. Green served as a summer associate at the Firm.

Publications

- "Endangerment Finding Reconsidered as Clean Air Waivers Are Targeted" (August 2025)
- "California's Climate Laws: CARB Sets the Stage, but Final Rules Delayed," republished in the California Daily Journal (August 2025)
- "Wind and Solar Projects Face Increased Oversight as Clean Energy Incentives Fade" (July 2025)
- "State-Level Legislation, Nationwide Impact: Key Insights Into the Proposed Climate Reporting Rules in New York, Colorado, New Jersey, and Illinois" (April 2025)
- "Red Tape or Green Future? Unpacking California's Climate Disclosure Laws and the Pushback," republished in California Daily Journal (April 2025)

Education

- Saint Louis University School of Law, J.D., 2024, magna cum laude
 - Managing Editor – St. Louis University Journal of Health Law and Policy
- University of Mississippi, B.S., 2021, cum laude

Admissions

- North Carolina, 2025
- Tennessee, 2024