

Dan S. Parks

Associate

Nashville | 615.726.7358 | dparks@bakerdonelson.com

Dan Parks is an associate in Baker Donelson's Nashville office and focuses his practice on data protection, privacy, and cybersecurity matters.

As a member of the Data Protection, Privacy and Cybersecurity Team, Dan provides legal and compliance guidance on all aspects of information governance, privacy compliance, cyber due diligence for corporate transactions, and vendor management. He advises clients on navigating evolving state, federal, and international privacy laws and regulations, including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), Federal Trade Commission Act (FTC Act), Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), and emerging state privacy laws.

Professional Honors & Activities

- Member – American Health Law Association (AHLA)
- Member – Tennessee Bar Association

Publications

- "DOJ Final Rule Applies to Anonymized, Pseudonymized, and De-Identified Data: What Data Licensors Need to Know," republished in FinTech Law Report (April 2025)
- "Best Practices for Protecting Operations from Vendor's Cyber Incidents" (October 2024)

Education

- University of Tennessee College of Law, J.D., 2024, magna cum laude
- University of Mississippi, B.A. in Psychology and B.B.A. in General Business, 2021, magna cum laude

Admissions

- Tennessee, 2024