Omkar "Om" Mahajan is an associate in Baker Donelson's Raleigh office and a member of the Corporate Group.

Om focuses his practice on a broad range of corporate and transactional matters, including mergers and acquisitions, equity and debt financing, corporate governance, fund formation, venture capital financings, and cross-border transactions. He represents a diverse range of clients – including startups, growth-stage companies, investors, and sponsors – across a wide range of transactional matters.

Om has experience leading and supporting transactions across various industries, including life sciences, technology, and consumer products. His representative work includes domestic and cross-border mergers and acquisitions, formation and structuring of venture capital and private equity funds, early- and growth-stage venture financings (including convertible notes, SAFEs, and priced rounds), drafting and negotiating shareholder agreements, operating agreements, and key commercial contracts, advising clients on corporate governance, equity compensation, and general corporate matters, and coordinating and managing legal due diligence and deal execution across jurisdictions.

Prior to joining Baker Donelson, Om worked in the private equity practice group at one of the largest international law firms in the world.
