Nivedita Patel ("Ni-vay-dhi-tha Pu-tel") brings more than a decade of experience in the health care industry, helping clients navigate complex transactional, regulatory, and compliance matters.

Ms. Patel is a trusted advisor to clients in the health care industry with more than a decade of experience as an in-house health care generalist and a skilled negotiator. Known for her strategic approach, she partners with clients to craft legal solutions that align with their business goals, driving meaningful results in an ever-evolving industry.

Ms. Patel's clients include academic medical centers, hospitals, physician groups, growing telehealth providers, and other health care organizations. She represents them in critical transactions such as mergers, acquisitions, joint ventures, physician alignment deals, value-based care initiatives, and other strategic efforts designed to position them for long term success in an evolving health care marketplace. Bringing experience from both sides of the negotiating table, Ms. Patel guides clients through the complexities of health care regulatory compliance.

For startups and companies without in-house legal teams, Ms. Patel offers general counsel services tailored to meet both their legal and business needs. Her strong business acumen, coupled with her practical legal experience, allows her to provide actionable advice that supports her clients' growth and success.

Prior to transitioning to private practice, Ms. Patel served as associate general counsel for the largest independent non-profit multi-specialty physician practice in Washington, D.C.
