

Noah Lipshie

Associate

Nashville | 615.726.7332 | nlipshie@bakerdonelson.com

Noah Lipshie is an associate in Baker Donelson's Nashville office and a member of the Health Law Group.

Noah is an associate in our Health Law Group where he supports health care organizations with a variety of transactional and regulatory matters.

Noah leverages his interdisciplinary skillset to assist clients with research and analysis involving Medicare and Medicaid rules, fraud and abuse laws, and other regulations that shape health care delivery. He helps clients understand how these legal requirements apply to their operations and works to develop reliable guidance.

Professional Honors & Activities

- Member – Tennessee Bar Association
- Member – American Health Law Association (AHLA)
- Member – American Bar Association (ABA)

Publications

- "Maryland Proposes New Public Interest Review for Health Care Transactions and CON Law Changes" (February 2026)
- "Medicare Telehealth Waivers Extended for Several More Years" (February 2026)
- "New Transaction Notice Requirements for Medical Groups Enacted in Rhode Island" (February 2026)
- "Deadline to Apply for Final Round of Medicare-Funded GME Residency Positions" (February 2026)
- "CMS Proposes Extending COVID-Era Telehealth and Supervision Flexibilities Through CY 2025" (July 2024)
- "Ruling Affirmed: Redemption Diluted Bulleit's Bottle Design" (June 2024)
- "A Safer Direction for Cannabis Banking: A Critical Analysis and Proposal to Improve the SAFER Banking Act," North Carolina Banking Institute (April 2024)

Education

- University of North Carolina School of Law, J.D., 2025
 - Managing Editor – North Carolina Banking Institute
- University of North Carolina Gillings School of Global Public Health, M.P.H., 2025
- Oberlin College, B.A., 2017

Admissions

- Tennessee, 2025