

Christian Schütz

Shareholder

Nashville | 615.726.7364 | cschuetz@bakerdonelson.com

Christian Schütz is a shareholder in Nashville and a member of the Firm's Real Estate Group.

Christian focuses his practice on real estate, finance, cross-border deals, and economic development. He has significant experience counseling clients on complex commercial real estate transactions, such as acquisitions, dispositions, commercial leasing, greenfield and brownfield development, construction, and financing, as well as investments in manufacturing facilities, apartments, land, cross-border, and economic incentive transactions. He handles office, retail, warehouse, and industrial leasing for tenant and landlord clients. Christian also represents clients in connection with the acquisition, disposition, leasing, development, and financing of commercial real estate across a variety of asset classes, including, in office, retail, hospitality, education, and health care real estate segments of commercial real estate.

As a native German, he frequently counsels German speaking clients as well as Swiss and Austrian clients expanding into the U.S. He also advises U.S. clients with business ventures in Germany and the European Union. Christian serves as Honorary Consul of Germany in Tennessee.

Professional Honors & Activities

- Honorary Consul of Germany in Tennessee (2021 – present)

Education

- Vanderbilt Law School, LL.M., 2007
- District Court Bonn, German Second Legal State Board Examination (Zweites juristisches Staatsexamen), 2004
- Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms University, German First Legal State Board Examination (Erstes juristisches Staatsexamen), 2001

Admissions

- Tennessee, 2008