Scam Alert: Fraudulent Account Access/Charges

It has come to our attention that would-be criminals are attempting to use Baker Donelson's name fraudulently in their attempts to scam/access individual financial accounts. Specifically these criminals are trying to access and charge the bank accounts or credit card accounts of innocent people claiming to be "Baker Donelson."

Baker Donelson does not and will never for any reason attempt to initiate access or charges to bank accounts or credit cards of any individual or organization. While clients can pay by credit card, those payments are made by the clients to Baker Donelson. Baker Donelson does not initiate charges to the accounts of third parties. This scam represents an attempt to obtain money under false pretenses.

Please do not provide these scammers with any personal or financial information, they have no affiliation with Baker Donelson, and be vigilant to protect your personal and financial information.

If you become aware of any of these types of charges to or attempts to access your account, please contact your local law enforcement authorities. Thank you.
