

NEWS

Nashville Business Journal Highlights Baker Donelson's Growth in the Nashville Office

The Nashville Business Journal talks with office managing shareholder Scott Carey about Baker Donelson's recent addition of 15 attorneys in the Nashville office. Mr. Carey said the Firm's focus in Nashville has been to expand its services in particular practices, specifically in its real estate and tax groups.

"The main growth you have seen is in our business department," said Mr. Carey. "Within the business department, we've added to the tax group and with the additions there we now have the largest tax group in Tennessee."

Read the Article (subscription required)