Linda Klein Profiled as Attorney at Law - Atlanta's "Attorney of the Month"

Attorney at Law - Atlanta highlights the impressive accomplishments of the 29-year career of Linda Klein, managing shareholder of Baker Donelson's Georgia offices. For Ms. Klein, her work is about more than her practice, which covers most types of business dispute resolution, including contract law, construction law, fidelity and surety law and professional liability. It's also about involvement in the legal profession and the community. In June 1997, she became the first woman to serve as President of the State Bar of Georgia, and she recently completed her 2011-2012 term as Chair of the American Bar Association's House of Delegates, ranked as the second highest office in the world's largest voluntary association. "It's a privilege to be able to do what I do every day," Ms. Klein says. "Making a difference is what it's all about – for clients, for one's community and for one's profession."
