Linda Klein Quoted in Daily Report on Corporate Counsel Agenda Southeast Report

Baker Donelson recently partnered with ALM Legal Intelligence to produce the Corporate Counsel Agenda Southeast Report. This survey of more than 100 general counsel at companies across the Southeast provides insight on issues and challenges they are facing along with their outlook for the coming year.

In this Daily Report article, Linda Klein notes that the results from the report mirrored what she is hearing from clients and that the survey has the potential to strengthen attorney-client relationships by opening a dialogue between lawyers and their clients.
