

PRESS RELEASE

Sye T. Hickey and Quin Evans Segall Join Baker Donelson

September 6, 2016

(Nashville, TN / September 6, 2016) Baker Donelson is pleased to announce the arrival of associates Sye T. Hickey and Quin Evans Segall to the Firm's Nashville office.

Mr. Hickey concentrates his practice in complex commercial litigation and frequently works with individual and corporate clients in disputes surrounding business torts and contractual issues. He previously served as a prosecutorial extern with the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Tennessee. Prior to graduating from the University of Tennessee College of Law in 2013, Mr. Hickey successfully argued the first application of the U.S.S.G. § 2D1.1(b)(12) enhancement in the Eastern District and prevailed on a mandatory minimum sentencing argument to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. He is a member of the North Carolina State Bar and the Tennessee and Nashville Bar Associations.

Ms. Segall, a member of the Firm's Real Estate and Finance Group, has extensive experience representing property managers in ad valorem tax disputes, representing property owners in various title-related and ownership association disputes, representing individuals in estate planning and probate matters, and representing local governments in various matters, including day-to-day operations, legislative drafting and public finance projects. A 2006 graduate of the University of Alabama School of Law, Ms. Segall clerked for the Honorable Gregory F. Van Tatenhove with the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky. She has served as president for the Family Guidance Center of Alabama and for Landmarks Foundation of Alabama. Ms. Segall is licensed in Alabama, New York and Tennessee and is a member of the Tennessee and Nashville Bar Associations.
