

PRESS RELEASE

Lewis' Access to Justice Work Extends Past Bar Presidency

August 27, 2009

Memphis Daily News

Author: Rebekah Hearn

George "Buck" Lewis, a shareholder at the Memphis office of Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz PC, earlier this year passed the gavel of the Tennessee Bar Association presidency to Nashville attorney Gail Ashworth. But he isn't finished promoting access to justice.

Lewis recently was elected vice-chair of the Tennessee Supreme Court's Access to Justice Commission, which was created in March. His "Justice 4ALL" campaign enjoyed widespread support during his 2008-2009 TBA presidency.

Now, Lewis is starting a new chapter as an access to justice provider after his 4ALL campaign has garnered state and national awards and as the Tennessee Supreme Court urges attorneys, legal service providers and local bar associations to make access to justice a primary objective.

Read More ...